

Airport transfer from Chambery:

Take a taxi to Chambery rail station, which is about 30 Euros (the only possibility but often you can share). Then take the train to Landry, which is the last station before Bourg-Saint-Maurice. Including airport/station taxi budget for approx €50 pp.

Get friends who have already arrived by car to come down the mountain and collect you from Landry train station or take the bus which goes 5 times a day for equivalent of about £8 single and get off at Vallandry Office de Tourisme.

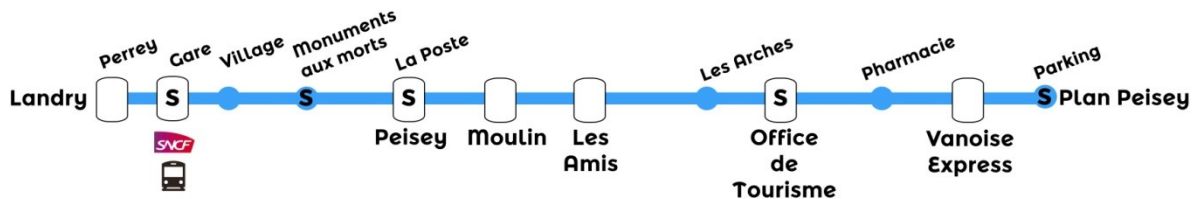

Winter:

Schedule of the Shuttle Bus Service. Landry Station/ Peisey-Vallandry Resort.

-L2: 7/7. Free from, Sunday to Friday. Charge fee on Saturday.
Departure and arriving at Landry Perrey

-L2S: Additional paying shuttle bus on Saturdays only, Departure and arrival at Landry SNCF station, stops at « S » bus stops only. Shown below on the picture. Tickets sold at Landry station.

One way ticket : €? Return ticket : €?

All transport possibilities:

Consult the Tourist Office Transort Page, it's very good.

BUS : Altibus: (Put in LANDRY) <https://www.altibus.com/> (Not always the cheapest if there are 4+)

TAXI: If you go onto this site and put in your details you will get email quotes from firms that do transfers. (Whenever we fly we go with Edelweiss Taxis.)

TRAIN: Train to Landry then Edelweiss Taxis up the mountain if no bus meets the train. There are sometimes quite long waits on platforms, so make sure that you are wrapped up warm and have something to eat/drink/read/listen to!